Biography

Andrew Rogerson is the Owner and Managing Director of a Sacramento office of Murphy Business and Financial Corporation, a franchise based in Clearwater, FL and part of the Northern California territory of Murphy Business and Financial Corporation – N CA. Andrew's franchise offers a range of services including business valuations, transaction analysis and consulting to sellers and/or buyers of a business, consulting for a buyer considering the purchase of a new franchise and appraisals for machinery and equipment.

Since 1983, Andrew has owned and operated 5 businesses including his current ownership and management of his Sacramento franchise with Murphy Business and Financial. Andrew bought his first business, an International Travel Agency, at age 27. His next venture involved owning and managing two retail office equipment/furniture and supply stores, with this followed by a wholesale travel and tourism company based in Los Angeles that had an annual turnover of $10,000,000. More recently, Andrew and his wife, Anne owned an Executive Suites business in Fair Oaks, CA. Anne operated this business while Andrew worked as an outsourced Program Manager at the Roseville campus of Hewlett Packard. At HP, Andrew was managing a team of 42 deploying a new global call center and support team including web developers, tech writers and trainers.
